sm. folio. Absque nota [? Nürnberg, or near Bamberg, c. 1460]

 This edition is regarded by Schreiber as a second impression of the original issue, but a good deal of controversy exists as to its relative chronological position. It consists of 50 leaves of designs and inscriptions in gothic characters, printed from wood blocks by means of the frotton, on one side of the paper only, the blank sides being pasted together, with the exception of the first and last; with signatures a–×. The blocks have been cut with remarkable skill, and the impressions are unusually clear and good, a pale brown ink has been used, and all the illustrations are in perfectly pure uncoloured state. The first leaf is slightly defective, to the extent of the loss of three letters and a small portion of design, the deficiency supplied in MS., there are one or two small holes in this leaf and the last; a few margins have been slightly cut into; the 11th and 12th leaves have a small hole; in one or two cases the paper guards at the inner margin have been pasted over small portions of the designs; l. 43 is slightly defective. On the recto of the first leaf, which is otherwise blank, is the following MS. inscription: "S. Joannis Apocalypsis cum figuris. Opus incisum, non typographicum foliis conglutinatio Ideoq; omni Typographico antiquius. Iolius in suo Monasterium itinere anno 1646. Apocalypsin Malinkrotio sibi ostensam memorat eandem cum ipsâ hâc dictam." Below this is the autograph signature and date "Jacobi Colij Orteliani 1598." EXCESSIVELY RARE; Schreiber knew of only ONE other complete copy, that at Munich. This copy has been carefully collated and any defects noticed have been mentioned, but it will, as usual, be sold not subject to return.

 According to Brunet this would be the second edition with a date if the very doubtful edition of Lyons is reckoned with. The Poem is accompanied by an allegory and a gloss, both in prose, to explain the text, and appears to have been intended as an educational work for the benefit of Charles Duc d'Orléans when a boy.

 The illustrations are nearly the same as in the edition in 1488 for Vincent Commin by G. Lerouge. On the title-page of each vol. is a very fine large grotesque L with the figures of St. George and the Dragon, etc., and there occur several times an equally fine and elaborate P., J. and S. The presence of the large cut of the Battle scene in vol. III renders this copy UNIQUE.
